Our mission is to promote personal growth and leadership development through family and consumer sciences education.

National Adviser Recognition Program: Master Adviser

Master Adviser award recognizes advisers who have been successful in advising an affiliated chapter for a minimum of three years; promoting the organization; operating a co-curricular chapter with a balanced program of work; facilitating youth-centered activities; and keeping abreast of new happenings within the organization.

Candidates must successfully complete three years of advising to be eligible for recognition. Applicants in their third year of advising may apply.

Criteria for Evaluation: Chapter facilitation skills and accomplishments: 50%; Promoting the organization: 30%; Professional development: 10%; Recommendations: 10%.

Instructions:

This application may be submitted by the candidate or as a nomination by another adviser, teacher educator, local family and consumer sciences supervisor, state adviser, professional colleague or FCCLA member. Nominees may need to be contacted to obtain complete information. To place a nomination, please submit the following information to the State Office postmarked by March 1.

- 1) A completed typewritten copy of this application.
- 2) Three letters of recommendation--one from each of the following: FCCLA member, school administrator, and person of candidate's choice (teacher, community member, ect). Photocopy the recommendation form provided, giving one copy to each individual.

A committee appointed by the state adviser will evaluate each application. The review team may include a variety of individuals such as state officers, local advisers, teacher educators, local family and consumer sciences supervisors, professional organization representatives or administrators. Applications and state summaries will be forwarded to national headquarters by April 1.

All recipients selected at the state level will be recognized at the National Leadership Conference. Recognition pins and certificates will be presented to recipients attending the meeting. Advisers unable to attend will receive their pins by mail following the meeting.
